26 September 1974

Dr. Fred C. Ikle
Director
Arms Control and Disarmament Agency
Washington, D. C. 20451

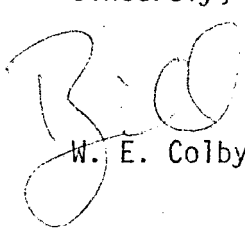

Dear Fred:

I agree with the conclusions of your letter of 10 September 1974, that the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency would benefit from a strengthening and clarification of ACDA's relationship with the Intelligence Community. The enclosed memorandum to the United States Intelligence Board responds to your desires in this regard.

The memorandum recognizes ACDA as a consumer of intelligence on a par with other major users of the products of the Intelligence Community. It identifies channels for the conduct of business between ACDA and intelligence producers and provides for soliciting ACDA comments on and participation in intelligence matters.

I hope you will find these arrangements satisfactory.

Sincerely,

W. E. Colby
